2018 Banks of the Wabash Classic

The Banks of the Wabash Classic will be held on Saturday, May 26th and Sunday, May 27th, at the Vermillion County Fairgrounds, Cayuga, Indiana. There will be two shows, including Champion Challenge. Also, we will be hosting the District 4 LaMancha Specialty (Ring 1). If participating in the Specialty show, please complete the Specialty Entry Form. To participate in a Specialty show, the animals must be exhibited in their respective age classes. Any finished doe may be shown in the Champion Challenge class or regular age appropriate class. Entries in Champion Challenge classes must present proof of championship in the form of the prefix CH or GCH affixed to the animal's registration or recordation certificate.

All shows are official ADGA sanctioned shows and ADGA rules shall govern. The Junior and Senior doe shows are separately sanctioned. The base date for Junior doe classes will be May 26, 2018 and Senior does will be May 27, 2018. The show will adhere to the National Code of Show Ring Ethics. The judges for this year will be Amy Akramoff (Ring 1) and Christen Adels (Ring 2).

Early entries must be postmarked by May 19, 2018, or late fees will apply. Early entries have priority in pen assignments.

The show committee will be available for exhibitor unloading/check in at the following times:

Friday, May 25, 2018: 6:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m.

Saturday, May 26, 2018: 8:00 a.m. to Noon

Sunday, May 27, 2018: 6:00 a.m. to 7:00 a.m.

Animals will be released after they have been shown. All breed champions must remain for Best Jr. or Best Sr. Doe in Show. Bedding will not be provided.

A registration or recordation certificate is required for any animal six months of age or older. A registration or recordation certificate or a stamped duplicate application is required for any animal under six months of age. No copies of the registration or recordation certificate, stamped duplicate application, or stamped fax duplicate will be accepted. Any animal without papers will not be permitted in the show ring. It is the exhibitor's responsibility to be present for their classes. The show will proceed uninterrupted.

Out-of-state dairy goats must have health certificates signed by a veterinarian, within 30 days of the show date. In-state dairy goats are not required to obtain health papers. No unloading of animals until they have been inspected by a committee member or their designee, no exceptions. If deemed unhealthy, that animal and potentially all animals housed with that animal in transport will be banned from showing.

The Vermillion County Fairgrounds, nor the Town of Cayuga will be responsible for any losses, damages, or accidents which could result in personal loss or injury. No dogs and no smoking in the barns or show areas.

Camping is available. You must call the Town of Cayuga for more information.

The B.O.W.C. show committee reserves the right to alter the show order to facilitate a smoothly run show. Show order is subject to change.
